NUITS SONORES 2015 :

BACK TO BASICS

For the 13th Nuits Sonores festival, the Arty Farty team has decided to bring together the values that form the festival's unique spirit.

Urbanity, freedom and camaraderie shape our event.

Nuits Sonores is investing in Lyon's hottest spots more than ever, including some remarkable industrial heritage sites and public spaces. "Confluence 2015" (Nuits Sonores + the European Lab held in the same area), is the sequel to the urban project we created in 2014. Nuits Sonores is, for the last time, heading back to an ever-changing neighbourhood which was the backdrop to the biggest chapters of the festival's history in 2014.

Originality, modernity and high standards frame our program and artistic direction.

Right from the early days in the 2000s, Nuits Sonores' program has always been produced with high artistic standards, discovery and the desire to win over audiences and reach out to the most curious among them. Nuits Sonores is a festival set in its day and age that brings about a unique, cross-disciplinary panorama of creativity worldwide, for both the present and the future. We are always on the quest for coherence, rather than embarking on a mad rush for headliners, which is key to the festival's subjectivity and total independence.

Co-construction, mediation and sharing define our festival's construction method.

With 400 volunteers, over 1000 team members, 500 companies and nearly 150 cultural organisations, Nuits Sonores is a project aiming to combine a strong artistic image with as much scope as possible for co-construction and external participation through its programs (Extra! and Night 2 in particular), as well as through its overall implementation and its urban deployment. Nuits Sonores is tied very closely to local mediation and relations, yet keeps a very open mind to initiatives and projects throughout Europe.

These three key points guide Nuits Sonores in the festival's adventure and aim to cultivate its role as a hub for passionate festivalgoers, professionals, projects and artists from all over the world. It is important to us that Nuits Sonores continues to provide unique, quality time and space for everybody, and that it decodes an ever-changing creative era.

CONFLUENCE 2015

TWO EVENTS, ONE AREA

PARDON MY FRENCH !

Confluence 2015 is the special event for 2015 Nuits sonores festival and European Lab forum in the Confluence district.

4 aims for this project :

- create a unique cultural experience by developing an artistic space in an ever-changing urban setting,
- value the Confluence district by uniting artists, professionals in cultural innovation, the public and the media from all over the world,
- support the urban and innovative dimension of Nuits sonores and European Lab through new approaches to festivals,
- develop a collaborative and participative project with the residents, the adjoining companies, through artistic or cultural actions which involve the population.

THE MAIN VENUES

CONFLUENCE 2015

ANCIEN MARCHÉ DE GROS

Nobody could forget the old market that Nuits Sonores used from 2009 to 2011 which became a talking point of the festival. This year, Nuits Sonores has returned to this heritage industrial site with newly designed spaces, including three stages, one of which has never been seen before in 2014.

LA SUCRIÈRE

In 2002, Arty Farty was the first team to invest la Sucrière. This symbolic and historical site will be the perfect place to host the Inauguration of Confluence 2015 and the main site of NS Days program.

HÔTEL DE RÉGION

This venue is on one hand the unique place for the European Lab forum and the public, artists, professionals and media reception point.

MAISON DE LA CONFLUENCE

The Maison de la Confluence has been the 2014 crush of the festival, a perfect suit for the Carte blanche to Glasgow. The Warsaw's colors will be on that site with a free program dedicated to the polish cultural metropolis and also Mini sonore, the festival for kids.

LE SUCRE

Le Sucre is magnificently perched on the roof of la Sucrière, Le Sucre will play host to all the professional and PR events.

L'ESPLANADE FRANÇOIS MITTERRAND

Nuits sonores festival and European Lab forum will transform the public square into a federative site of the two projects. Information point, host site for the public, ticketing point, mediation, but also fooding area, installations, library will be at the centre of the organisation.

THE ARCHITECTURAL & SCENOGRAPHIC PROJECT

After investing in the Confluence district in 2014, Looking For Architecture's architects this year propose to make conviviality the main aim for the Confluence 2015 Project, with strengthened local projects for festivalgoers.

The Ancien Marché Gros (Former Wholesale Market), is the venue for the three main Nights, and this year has circulation spaces and generous areas to relax as well as a range of interactive and fun visual installations. There will be unique stage designs in the Halle Girard (Hall 1) and in Hall 3.

Le Sucre, the NS Days program venue, will have an original installation which will give a special atmosphere to this place that is so well-known to Nuits Sonores crowds. Designed as a true daytime club, Le Sucre will be transformed into a big space to play and have fun.

La Maison de la Confluence and the new François Mitterrand Esplanade, will be home to the Carte Blanche and Mini Sonore programs, with a series of micro-architectures devised and implemented by groups of guest architects who work with the festival integrating local energy (residents associations, students, school children etc.) to provide a welcoming location with unique artistic experiences. There will also be a ticket desk, a restaurant area and a playground.

Cours Charlemagne, which runs right through the Confluence district from north to south, will be dotted with art installations by guest designers, who will focus on the area's tram lines and tram stops and tram stations (Suchet, St. -Blandine, Montrochet and Musée des Confluences).

This year's guest city will give the festival a special twist, especially at the François Mitterrand Esplanade and La Maison de la Confluence that will play host to the Warsaw Carte Blanche program. The developments and changes in Poland, and Warsaw in particular, form an interesting parallel in terms of the transformation of the Confluence area.

LOOKING FOR ARCHITECTURE

NUITS SONORES' S ARCHITECTS & SET DESIGNERS

Looking For Architecture, established in 2011 by Antoine Trollat & Laurent Graber, is an architecture workshop based in Lyon. Grégoire Oriol, their collaborator, completes the LFA team.

Why Looking For Architecture?

We have chosen LFA for the care they take in understanding the user and the definition of the project - studying the program's context - to seek out consistently unique architecture. As architects, they address all programs with the same approach and sensitivity by focusing on the art of the proportions of the body in space. It is likely that their experience in events led them to adopt a particular architecture in terms of space, time, landscape and users. Their practice of the ephemeral allowed them to build a vocabulary they apply to small and large-scale projects, focusing their architectural work on what is built as well as what surrounds it. They are real jacks-of-all-trades, offering facilities, mobile structures and "standard" and "non-standard" architecture. Their work has been enriched through their collaborations with artists, artisans, industrialists and colleagues: they form many "tailor-made" partnerships according to the project and client.

Their path now leads them to design and construct with culture and the performing arts in mind, for both private and public projects. This unusual approach started by chance, just by intuition, and is now the path that guides their evolution. In parallel, their regular participation in teaching workshops in architecture schools in Lyon and Clermont-Ferrand means they can share and enrich their commitment. LFA's work is above all centred on the constant desire that characterises building new partnerships and projects around the contemporary issues concerning our localities.

TWICE GRAPHIC STUDIO FOR 2015

MINI SONORE

THE FESTIVAL FOR KIDS

This year, Nuits Sonores has not forgotten its mini festival and gives children the opportunity to have their own festival experience by participating in the Mini Sonores program. The concept is simple: immerse children in the Nuits Sonores universe by introducing them to various artistic disciplines represented at the festival.

Audiovisual techniques (photo-editing, video overlay, stop-motion, new musical forms etc.), that are not often addressed in children's lives, will be well represented.

The idea is to rethink some often more traditional activities (colouring, painting, cutting, pasting, fashion etc.) to get children, alongside professionals, to experiment and develop their creativity.

Children can have their own special festival experience by attending concerts, having a boogie at the mini disco, sipping on a mocktail or just getting behind the scenes at the festival.

MUSIC

THE STAGE AREA

The Stage Area is a festival space where all sorts can come together and even the little ones can "go live". There'll be a stage where certain Nuits Sonores artists play, a drink and food corner, a radio station to stay up-to-date with all of Mini Sonore's news, and an unforgettable disco to wrap up each day!

NUITS SONORES BACKSTAGE VISIT

Our important mini-festivalgoers can take a special tour of what goes on backstage at Nuits Sonores. They can meet artists and professionals who can explain the different stages involved in making sure the festival runs smoothly.

NS DAYS 2015

A DAY WITH

For the first time in its history, Arty Farty has handed its programming over to the leading artists of electronic music. The "A Day With ..." project devotes each day of Nuits Sonores to an artist who embodies the spirit of the festival.

The task was not easy but the three selected curators (Ben Klock, John Talabot and Jamie XX) took on some serious personal work as well as the challenge of distilling their influences, stories and visions of contemporary music, through three thematic stages - a dance stage (Room 1930), a live and experimental stage (Room 1960) and an outdoor stage (Esplanade) dedicated to the culture of sound systems.

A DAY WITH BEN KLOCK

Ben Klock is a true icon of the Berlin scene he embodies with his wealth of energy and power. The mere mention of his name is enough to set off raw, direct techno, closely tied to the aesthetics of Berghain's label Ostgut Ton. His music summons up the legacy of Detroit's pioneering scenes as well as a broader range of scenes. The German producer's influences extend to a much wider musical spectrum, including atmospheric tracks and bumpy rhythmic bass music. Ben Klock is putting together the NS Days program for the first time, and has no fear of the unexpected. It is the perfect opportunity to better understand the essence of this dance machine.

3PM-4PM : MUSIC FOR 18 MUSICIANS OF STEVE REICH BY LHE LINKS ENSEMBLE (IMPULSE! PROD PARIS-LYON - FRANCE) LIVE

Music for 18 Musicians is considered to be the masterpiece from the famous American composer Steve Reich, who is known as one of the founders of "minimalist" and "repetitive" music. Reich's heady music is based on regular beat with four singers, marimbas, strings and woodwinds.

4PM-5.30PM & 7PM-9PM : BEN KLOCK (KLOCKWORKS-OSTGUT TON BERLIN-GERMANY) DJ SET

Ben Klock has had a residency at Berghain since it opened in 2004, and has gone on to become one of the planet's most popular DJs. His pure, deep and raw techno sets are a trademark of the Berlin scene, represented by the label Ostgut Ton which Klock heads.

8PM-9.30PM : JEROEN SEARCH (FIGURE SPC-SEARCH AMSTERDAM- NETHERLAND) LIVE

Jeroen Search is often named as a source of inspiration, and has maintained a strict and integral artistic approach to minimalist techno with a touch of metal and muscle since the 1990s.

4PM-5PM : WITXES (DENOVALI RECORDS / LYON-FRANCE) LIVE

Witxes, the name that conjures up a Mexican witches' Sabbath, is the main avatar of the prolific experimenter Maxime Vavasseur. In 2012, Vavasseur opened the prestigious German label Denovali. With organic loops and electronic undertones, his music is an emotional rollercoaster reminiscent of some of the finest moments of tenors such as Tim Hecker, Pan Sonic and Fennesz.

5:15PM-6:15PM : OUBYS (TESTTOON RECORDS / BRUXELLES-BELGIUM) LIVE

Oubys, who comes from the Flemish Belgian city of Hasselt, is an experimental music producer. Oubys is a true fan of field recording and composes his music using a process that mixes live improvisations and meticulous sound treatment. The fluctuating atmosphere of his tracks is both contemplative and meditative, inviting listeners to dive deep into a parallel state of consciousness.

6:30PM-8PM : SHACKLETON (SKULL DISCO / LONDON-UNITED KINGDOM) LIVE

Sam Shackleton is an enigmatic figure of the bass scene. In 2008, he didn't hesitate to put an end to his first label, Skull disco, after producing a dozen or so releases. With a punk soul, Shackleton started out in rock, a decision which would mark this producer's will to turn his back on the dubstep scene he saw grow, instead choosing to uncover new musical territory. The Englishman now lives in Berlin, where his sets are very much personalized, half-way between deep English bass and Berlin minimalist techno.

8PM-9:30PM : GOLDIE (METALHEADZ / LONDON-UNITED KINGDOM) DJ SET WITH MC

Clifford Price aka Goldie (co-founder of the label Metalheadz) first made a name for himself in the heat of the 80s British graffiti scene. In 1991, he met DJ Kemistry who introduced him to the English breakbeat scene. Jungle music and drum'n'bass became his genres of choice, which he helped spread as a DJ and producer. In 2013, he celebrated his 20-year career with the release of The Alchemist, a three-disc compilation of his best tracks. An MC will join Goldie on stage at Nuits Sonores, for an exclusive live set!

5:30PM–9:30PM : PEVERELIST B2B KOWTON (LIVITY SOUND / BRISTOL- UNITED KINGDOM) DJ SET

The collective and label Livity Sound was born out of the Bristol dubstep community in 2010. It took shape at the time when the genre was losing its meaning by becoming a fashion statement. Its founders, Peverelist, Kowton and Asusu, imported their dub methods and soundsystem culture to English techno. The mix was critically acclaimed and, when played on serious speakers, reveals an impressive physical dimension.

The track Geffen, released in 2012 on Matias Aguayo's label, Cómeme, put the German producer and DJ in the spotlight. Today, he is involved with labels like Kompakt, the founder of Magazine (a label and rarities collector club), and has become an icon in the Cologne techno scene. His album Magazine 13 has just been released and a new EP (on Joy Orbinson's label Hinge Finger) is set for release in 2015.

5PM-6PM : GENIUS OF TIME (ANARIA REC. / GÖTEBORG-SWEDEN) LIVE

Mixing old school analogue sounds with modern house, Alexander Berg and Nils Krogh's music has found a home with prestigious labels such as Clone, Running Back and Aniara. They have been setting off incredible time bombs on the dancefloor. Their rare live performances - unique and intense - do not disappoint audiences.

3PM-5.20PM : LENA WILLIKENS (COMÈME / COLOGNE-GERMANY) DJ SET

Eclecticism and unparalleled technique aptly describe Lena Willikens, resident at Dusseldorf's Salon des Amateurs. She is also affiliated with the label Cómeme where she makes monthly podcasts. This DJ explores the strange and obscure borders of dance music, bringing together techno synth, dirty house and disco with her musical explorations of African and Asian scenes.

5.40PM-6.40PM : SYRACUSE (ANTINOTE / PARIS-FRANCE) LIVE

Quentin Vandezalle, aka Zaltan, didn't need more than his TR-808 loops, a beat up piano and a Brazilian style choir to sign Syracuse to his label Antidote. Antoine Kogut and Isabelle Maitre have been working on pieces together since the age of 16. Their music incorporates house piano, Italo disco with aerial ballads and psychedelic pop. On stage, their techno sets never fail to shake up the dancefloor

7PM-8PM : NINOS DU BRASIL (HOSPITAL PRODUCTION / VENEZIA-ITALY) LIVE

Nico and Nicolo, from Northern Italy, were touring with their hardcore punk band With Love (signed to Omar Rodriguez's label from At The Drive-In and The Mars Volta) when they decided to create the Ninos du Brasil project. It started out as a joke, creating noise with Brazilian percussions and playing non-stop. With an audacious and improbable mix of batucada, noise, samba and electronic music, their sporadic stage appearances quickly turned legendary.

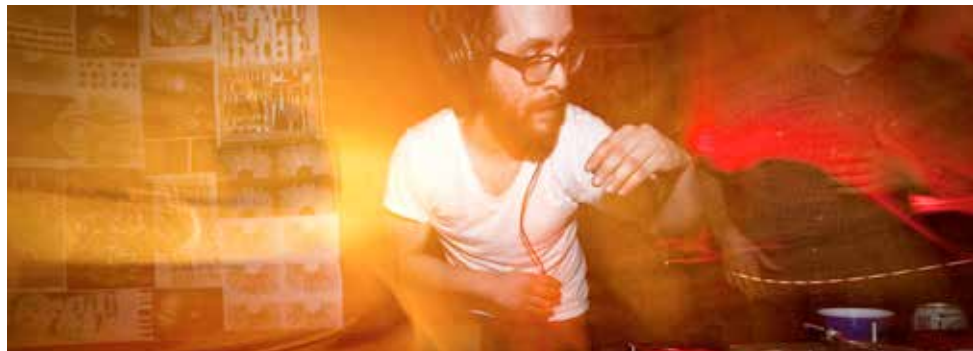

8.15PM-9.15PM : ANDRE BRATTEN (FULL POP / OSLO-NORWAY) LIVE

Like his compatriots Todd Terje, Print Thomas and Linstrøm, Andre Bratten represent the new Norwegian electro scene and has certainly made his mark on Oslo's clubs. A DAY WITH JAMIE XX

For Jamie xx's big return to Lyon, we needed a custom-made project. This day in the company of the London musical genius comes just after the release of his debut solo LP. The xx's producer has decided to teleport his whole London tribe and to give this day an exciting taste of East London. Jamie xx will bring out the best of the contemporary English scene with teams from the Boiler Room, Young Turks, NTS and Eglo. This is the result of a true cultural process. Today's curious generation, brought up on jazz, hip-hop and techno in its infancy is finding its place in the limelight. The mythical jazz fusion group "The Pyramids" is another major element of this London-esque program.

14H30-16H00 : MATTIS WITH (HIVERN DISCS / OSLO - NORVÈGE) DJ SET

5.30PM-7.30PM : FLOATING POINTS (EGLO RECORDS / LONDRES - ANGLETERRE) DJ SET

Sam Sheppard, aka Floating Points, just had time to finish the track he was working on since that morning backstage at last year's festival. A few minutes later on stage, he played it for the very first time and the crowd's reaction was unanimously positive. "This track HAD to be called Nuits Sonores" claimed Floating Points a few months later when it was released on Eglo Records. Welcome back Sam!

7.30PM-9.30PM : JAMIE XX (YOUNG TURKS / LONDRES-ANGLETERRE) DJ SET

Renowned for his work with the global pop sensation The xx, Jamie Smith (aka Jamie XX) is also a successful producer, remixer and DJ. 3PM-4.30PM : WALLS (KOMPAKT / LONDON - UK) LIVE

London duo Walls, from the label Kompakt, mixes textures with guitar loops, synthesizers and vocals, making for a powerful and captivating result. Their first album was named electronica album of the year by the influential British magazine Mojo, and was listed in the best albums of the year by NME. Their fans include Caribou, James Holden, and of course, Jamie XX who has invited them to open on this stage.

5PM-6PM : REAL LIES (MARATHON ARTISTS / LONDRES - ANGLETERRE) LIVE

Jamie XX brought me here... when The xx's producer played North Circular by Real Lies at a Boiler Room session on a London rooftop last summer, the number of views on the YouTube clip went off the charts. Reminiscent of Weak Become Heroes by the Streets, North Circular and its euphoric piano notes, airy loops and soaked accent capture the melancholy at the end of parties, going home alone on a come down. It was an instant classic like the only two other tracks revealed thus far by the band. Their show at Nuits Sonores will be once of their very first appearances in France.

6.30PM-7.30PM : IDRIS ACKAMOOR

& THE PYRAMIDS (DISKO B / SAN FRANCISCO - ETATS-UNIS) LIVE

Founded in the 1970s by Idris Ackaor, Margaux Simmons and Kimathi Sante during their incredible trip to Africa (Ethiopia, Ghana and Kenya), the Pyramids is one of the first Afro-American bands to explore their ancestors' music well before the term "world music" came into use. They have recorded and self-produced three albums, which have all been reissued by Disko B as a triple album. On stage, they mix music, theatre and artistic performance, considering art as a form of social activism.

7.30PM-9PM : JAMES STEWART (PALMWINE RECORDS / LYON - FRANCE) DJ SET

James Stewart has been running an FM radio program in the south of France for the past 10 years. Arranged around Black Atlantic music, his program covers a large musical spectrum (jazz, funk, samba and cumbia just to name a few) from the 50s right up until today. He is also finishing a thesis on the subject and doesn't miss an opportunity to pull out his records.

SUNDAY PARK

To end the week in style, Nuits Sonores has chosen to hold its Sunday Park event right in the heart of the Confluence district. Think Woodstock, Summer Of Love, Dirty Dancing, Courbet's The Origin of the World by Courbet, Keith Haring's Debbie Dick, Led Zeppelin's Whole Lotta Love, the Kama Sutra, The Famous Five. This special day is set on celebrating love in all its forms. Preaching love at a festival may seem naive. Yet what could be more symbolic than thousands of people brought together by their shared passion for music?

SCENOGRAPHY

This year, Sunday Park's temporary scenography has been entrusted to Pop Up Market. The team is working from a basis with a touch of army-style, where the commando of Liberty seamstresses will flower in tents, brightly coloured flags will be hoisted high into the sky, transforming the camp into a haven where only relaxation, smiles and serenity are allowed.

A STAGE OF LOVE

This is a unique opportunity to launch a challenge for our programmer friends at other European festivals, dropping them like wild beasts into the arena of love. At the helm, no less than six programmers are waiting for you. They shall all be there to share their dream playlists with us. It is also the perfect opportunity to tip our hats to the De Concert! federation to which Nuits Sonores and the six other festivals belong; a federation that stands for the principles of solidarity and tolerance.

SUNDAY PARK

MINI SONORE CAMP

The Mini Sonore camp has been turned into a training camp of love, allowing kids to discover the joys of effort (and comfort!). Supervised by soldiers from the Flower Power Regiment, kids will have to solve many puzzles to find out which of them can be crowned the king of queen of "love"!

POP UP CAMP

There's nothing like a bit of shopping to relax on the last day of the festival - especially when it's for a good cause. Come along and support independent designers (Stands and Fashion Trucks) and our long-time partner's (Secours Populaire) mission of solidarity which will hold its own trash and treasure market for the third year running..

And, never fear, we haven't forgotten about your bellies! You can treat yourself to all things delicious at the street of Food Trucks.

CINÉ LOVE : CARTE BLANCHE TO PARIS INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL OF PSYCHEDELIC MUSIC (PIFPM)

A program of films, documentaries and short films orchestrated by PIFPM team.

In order to represent love, the major theme of the psychedelic movement, PIFPM is putting on a narrative, a journey into the depths of the hippies years. Psychedelia is not a genre or a style, but a spirit, an emotion. Let's run away together to discover the twists and turns of Love!

EXTRA!

NUITS SONORES' FREE, 3.0 AND MUCHO LOVE PROGRAM

Extra! is a unique initiative in its genre in Europe. It's for anyone with a pinch of creativity who wants to see their project brought to life as part of the Nuits Sonores festival. This all runs on an open call for projects. What could top that?

Extra! is essentially a work in progress, and is currently in a phase of elaboration.

Born in 2008, Extra! is somewhat the hyperactive child of the Nuits sonores festival. It's the bonus gift and the cherry on the cheese-cake for festival-goers looking for new artistic adventures. Extra! aims to consolidate the creative, sexyn and wandering side of Nuits sonores.

How ? By inviting any cultural activists or electronic cultures addicts who would like to be actively involved in the festival and imagine and organize their own event. All but a off event, Extra! puts the oomph in the festival experience.

Over 120,000 people have taken part in more than 250 projects (mostly free) in unique public locations or weird places. Extra! was set up seven years ago as an off-beat option for festival-goers looking for extra fun, sensations and meetings. Extra! knows no limits : street-running, mutant exhibitions, dancefloors with a view, disco cruises, kids nightclubs, street food, electro jogging, sumo wrestling, safari photo, crash culture, steampunk party, electro pétanque, pirate radio, chic afters, gaming apéros... Extra! is a bit of all of that.

THE NIGHT PROGRAM

OPEN-MINDED SPIRIT

Firstly, the international reach of our 13th festival is a revolution for Nuits Sonores. More than 22 nationalities are represented with artists hailing from Greece, Turkey, Lebanon, Brazil, Chile, Portugal, Poland, Bulgaria and beyond. In a world where electronic and independent cultures are monopolised by a handful of western countries such as Germany, the United Kingdom and the United States, the opening of programming is the sign of a deeper change in the global music scene, especially in its quest to reinvent itself in the face of rapid cultural globalisation.

Considering this somewhat tainted freedom of expression, it's time to release music's voice which has been long-silenced for Mediterranean artists. We cannot forget that our identity was built in the Euro-Mediterranean trade. This question is one of Nuits Sonores' common themes because our nights need to interact across cultures and nationalities more than ever.

Opening up our program to international horizons also reflects a variety of aesthetic stories in an attempt to understand the various musical currents that make up unprecedented productions, both in quantity and in distribution. The Nights program will oscillate freely between future hip-hop, Turkish psychedelia, new wave post-industrial, English techno, melodic electronica and "made in Lyon" Afro funk. Each stage at the festival is designed to unravel the historical links that connect such aesthetics of the past, present and future.

The openness for the programming of our 13th festival has been shared with the artists that will be curating certain stages - Jamie XX, Jon Talbot and Ben Klock. They are our guests of honour at NS Days. For the Nights, we've got Carl Craig and his project Detroit Love, Daniel Avery with his continued international residence Divided Love, the platform created and customised by Tale Of Us, entitled A Tale of Nuits Sonores and finally, Brodinski's work on new trends in rap, hip-hop and r'n'b. These all reflect a festival that is always seeking to renew itself.

NUIT 1 HALLE 1

A TALE OF NUITS SONORES BY TALE OF US

9.30PM-10.15PM : PGMN (XVIIIEMPENINSULE / LYON-FRANCE) LIVE

PMGN is an electroacoustic composer whose influences come just as much from musique concrète as from reggae, glitch-hop and minimal music. His recent compositions lead us into a world where traditional and ethnic music blends with contemporary sounds.

10.30PM-11.45PM : NILS FRAHM (ERASED TAPES RECORDS / BERLIN-GERMANY) LIVE

Nils Frahm's recitals got him noticed across the globe. Synths soon became a major element of his performances, with the release of his album Spaces in 2013. Nils deliberately neglects the boundaries between classic and contemporary music. He surrounds himself with keyboards, pianos and synths on stage and improvises infinite loops that get lost in the effects pedals.

12AM-1AM : RECONDITE (INNERVISIONS / BERLIN-GERMANY) LIVE

Lorenz Brunner aka Recondite is an amateur of field-recording, and never leaves home without his phone which he uses to record any sound he can add to his long, progressive (and introspective) tracks. Lying somewhere between techno dub and electronic refrains, his first album Hinterland navigates its way through dystopian visions and feelings of absolute plenitude.

1AM-3AM : TALE OF US (LIFE AND DEATH / MILAN-ITALY) LIVE

Carmine Conte and Matteo Milleri landed in Berlin 5 years ago with nothing but a couple of turntables and a Macbook. The duo is now at the head of the label Life & Death and are known for their cult tracks and remixes which are very much in-demand on today's dancefloors across the globe.

3AM-5AM : AGORIA B2B MANO LE TOUGH - AGORIA (INNERVISIONS / LYON - FRANCE)

Following the success of Scala last year, Agoria hit up the studio again this winter, this time to knuckle down on the production of his highly anticipated upcoming album. The Lyonnais DJ-producer-composer is also working on the soundtrack for Ian Kounen's next film. For his big return to Lyon, Agoria is keen share his acute sense of pitch rises with another expert in the field, Mano Le Tough.

MANO LE TOUGH (PERMANENT VACATION / BERLIN-GERMANY) DJ SET

From the little village of Greystones near Dublin, Niall Mannion aka Mano Le Tough has become a specialist in house music with well-rounded bass lines and melodic surges. This could almost earn him an "emo" label if he didn't prefer the term "folkal house" himself.

DANIEL AVERY PRESENTS DIVIDED LOVE

9PM-11PM : ANSWER CODE REQUEST (OSTGUT / BERLIN-GERMANY) DJ SET

Patrick Gräser aka Answer Code Request hails from Pößneck (Germany) just like Marcel Dettman and Marcel Fengler. He is also part of the Ostgut Ton family, which is Berghain's label – where he recently has a residency. This German DJ's music mixes beats inherited from bass music with dub textures. It sounds like the perfect synthesis between the UK garage scene and Berlin techno, even IDM. He names Aphex Twin as one of his major influences.

11.15PM-12.15AM : FACTORY FLOOR (DFA / LONDON-UNITED KINGDOM) LIVE

True to the Mancunian heritage handed down by bands such as A Certain Ratio and New Order, the English band Factory Floor holds to a clinical, post-industrial approach to dance music. It is no accident that their first self-titled album was in DFA's 2013 catalogue. Their DIY approach, shaking up synth pop, industrial, noise, house and techno music, is led by the magnetic Nik Colk Void.

12.45AM-1.45AM : VOICES FROM THE LAKE (PROLOGUE / ROMA-ITALY) LIVE

An Italian duo made up of Donato Dozzy and Neel, Voices From The Lake created a techno/ambient dub masterpiece in 2012, which remains unbeaten. Praised by critics (Resident Advisor gave them a top 5/5 rating), the album is a continuous 71-minute immersion in infinite details. Live, the experience is just as hypnotic.

1.45AM-3.15AM : KINK (RUSH HOUR SOFIA-BULGARY) LIVE

In 2008, Strahil Velchev, a.k.a. Kink, met Neville Watson online. They went on to collaborate for Inside Out and Full Flight, which were Valchev's first success stories signed on Rush Hour. But it was a video of him fiddling around with his machines in his home studio that really stood out to a few pros in Europe.

03.15AM-5AM : DANIEL AVERY (PHANTASY / LONDON-UNITED KINGDOM) DJ SET

Daniel Avery has been championed by Andrew Weatherall and former resident at the Fabric in London. He has managed to earn himself a top spot in the galaxy of producers in just two years. You can't deny that Avery has a sixth sense for synthesis – he revises rave music from the 90s with a hint of something new. He is signed to Erol Alkan's label, Phantasy Sound, where he mixes acid-house, ambient music and techno all while conserving the primal rock behind of early techno productions.

9.15PM-10.15PM : MEHMET ASLAN (HUNTLEYS+PALMER / BERLIN-GERMANY) DJ SET

Mehmet Aslan started out with a residency at Hinterhof in Basel (Switzerland) and is now based in Berlin. He's a producer with Turkish roots who has reappropriated his 'ancestors' music through productions that blend folkloric undertones with contemporary 4/4. Whether its edits or remixes, his Turkish party anthems have been quick to seduce Tim Sweeney and Acid Arab, as well as the English label Huntleys + Palmers, which signed his first compositions.

10.30PM-11.30PM : INSANLAR (ABOOV PLAK / ISTANBUL-TURKEY) LIVE

Bariş K hails from Istanbul and made a name for himself in 2007 with a series of mixes that sought to look deeply into his Anatolian roots, which revealed some hidden gems of Turkish funk and psychedelic music from the 60s and 70s. For his project Insanlar, he has teamed up with two musicians to mix electronic and traditional music with lyrics from traditional poets from the 16th and 17th centuries. His EP Kime Ne is an Eastern electro epic that would appeal to fans of Darkside's Golden Arrows.

12AM-1AM : HALAWELLA {ZEID HAMDAN & MARYAM SALEH} (LEBANESE UNDERGROUND / BEYROUTH -LIBAN / CAIRO-EGYPT) LIVE

Zeid Hamdan is an icon of the Lebanese and Middle Eastern underground scene. He's the man behind the mythical trip-hop group Soap Kills. Alongside Maryam Saleh, a committed Egyptian singer, they rework Egyptian songs of dissent from the 70s and from the classic Arabic repertoire.

1.30AM-2.30AM : MAZALDA FEAT CHEB LAKHDAR (LYON-FRANCE / ORAN-ALGERIA) LIVE

The six musicians in Mazalda are fans of raï from the late 70s and 80s – including Cheba Fadela with Bellemou Messaoud's first recordings through to Rachid Baba Ahmed's productions with Algerian singers. They accompany Cheb Lakhdar's powerful voice with their unique flavor, mixing rock instruments (drums, pads, guitars and analogue synths) with more acoustic and traditional instruments (bouzoukis, oboes, flutes, accordions and trumpets).

DETROIT LOVE

9PM-MIDNIGHT : DJ DEEP (DEEPLY ROOTED / PARIS - FRANCE) DJ SET

DJ Deep is one of Laurent Garnier's protégés. In the early days, Garnier invited him to mix at Le Boy and La Luna, where DJ Deep became an ambassador of deep house and New York garage in France. This was largely thanks to his residencies at Le Rex and Le Queen, on top of some weekly broadcasts on Radio FG and Radio Nova. This music-lover used to concentrate mostly on New York house that he found more dynamic than the type of Detroit techno which he felt was going in circles. Now, he is more involved in impulsive Berlin scene led by artists such as Marcel Dettmann and Ben Klock.

12AM-2AM : MOODYMANN (MAHOGANI / DETROIT-UNITED STATES) DJ SET

A father figure of American House, Kenny Dixon Jr. aka Moodymann boasts an impressive discography of 11 albums and counting. Drawing on Motown, funk, jazz and gospel vibes, the Detroit-based producer brings the genre back to its roots in black music, a pedigree found in his sets marked by soulful and sensual grooves.

2AM-5AM : CARL CRAIG FEAT. MAD MIKE BANKS (PLANET E-UR / DETROIT-UNITED STATES) LIVE

A child of Motown, Carl Craig's contribution to the made in Detroit techno scene is as sprawling as his repertoire of albums, EPs and remixes released under an infinite number of pseudonyms – such as 69, Psyche, BFC, Paperclip People, Innerzone, Orchestra, C2, Tres Demented, just to name a few. For the occasion, he'll be joined on stage by another legendary icon from Detroit – Mike Banks, aka Made Mike. Banks creates alongside Jeff Mills, Robert Hood and Darwin Hall on the label Underground Resistance. His musical roots stretch as deep into gospel and funk as they do into Kraftwerk and Jaco Pastorius' music.

A real icon in the collective of troublesome boys, Artjacking, Lyon local Malinké is a beatmaker specialising in hip-hop in all its forms, turning up the tone of this stage to electro to hip-hop.

10.15PM-11.15PM : BLUE DAISY (BLACK ACRE / LONDON-UNITED KINGDOM) LIVE

Beatmaker Kwesi Darko, aka Blue Daisy, built himself a solid reputation in 2009 with his single Space Ex, composed with French singer LaNotre, which was picked up by Pitchfork and Resident Advisor. The London local's music is futuristic and downbeat, sometimes resembling Burial's dubstep or Flying Lotus' glitch-hop. His first album (2011) is made up of 12 deconstructed, elegant tracks and was released on the top label Black Acre.

11.30PM-12.30AM : KELELA (FACE TO MIND / LOS ANGELES-UNITED STATES) LIVE

Kelela Mizanekristos comes from an Ethiopian family settled in Washington, and had never have even thought of singing before studying jazz and get produced in cafes during her studies. 12.45AM-1.45AM : THEOPHILUS LONDON (WARNER / NEW YORK - US) LIVE

Theophilus London is a key figure of the Brooklyn rap scene. His influences include Michael Jackson, Prince, the Smiths and Kraftwerk. He's not one to cut corners, as shown by the success of the EPs, mixtapes and two albums he has released in the past few years. His latest album, which was produced by Kanye West, is a concentration of stripped back, alternative hip hop that was inspired from 80s synthpop and new wave.

2AM-3.30AM : BRODINSKI (BROMANCE / PARIS - FRANCE) LIVE

In February 2015, Brodinski released his first album Brava, which reflects this young Reims local's remarkable career. He started out at just 18 years old on his family computer, and a few years later was sharing Kanye West's studio. Brava goes off-the-wall, refusing to choose between rap and techno. He's all set to perform his project live at Nuits Sonores this year.

Behind this intriguing name hides Tom Relleen & Valentina Magaletti, both members of The Oscillation who played at Nuits Sonores in 2014. The duo's first album Futura Grotesk, released in late 2014, was filled with rich minimalist and experimental compositions, creating an especially strange and psychedelic universe.

10.45PM-11.30PM : JESSICA93 (TEENAGE MENOPAUSE RECORDS / PARIS-FRANCE) LIVE

Jessica93 is Geoff Laporte's dark one-man band. His hypnotic, intoxicating melodies are interlaced with looped and re-looped rhythms. 12AM-12.45AM : PUBLIC SERVICE BROADCASTING (TEST CARD RECORDING / LONDON-UNITED KINGDOM) LIVE

Public Service Broadcasting is a duo made up of J. Willgoose on guitar, banjo, samples and electronic instruments and Wigglesworth on drums and piano. They aim to do just what the title of their first album Inform, Educate, Entertain (released in May 2013) indicates, on a global scale. They take samples from old public information films, archived images and propaganda to "teach the lessons from the past through the music of the future".

1.15AM-2AM : FUTURE OF THE LEFT (PRESCRIPTION RECORDS / CARDIFF-UNITED KINGDOM) LIVE

Future of the Left got together in 2005 in the aftermath of McLusky, the trio dedicated to twisting the original ideals of punk. Their affiliation can be felt from the opening riffs with raging guitars, millimetric choirs and inspired vocals. Their fourth album How To Stop Your Brain In An Accident was released in November 2013 on their own label Prescriptions. NME defines them as "the most underrated rock band in the UK".

2.30AM-3.30AM : PALMA (PALMA / LYON-FRANCE) LIVE

11PM-12AM : THE ORB (COOKING VINYL / LONDRES - ANGLETERRE) LIVE

Founded in 1988 by Alex Paterson and Jimmy Cauty, The Orb is known as a pioneer of the ambient house genre, a style mixing 4/4 patterns and atmospheric vocals. The band's futuristic and psychedelic world was first snapped up for chill-out atmospheres after-hours but soon their success stretched beyond their inner circles to the general public. In 1992, the Group was ranked number 1 in the UK charts and made a famous appearance on Top of the Pops, playing chess with their album as the background music.

12.20AM-1.20AM : JON HOPKINS (DOMINO / LONDRES - ANGLETERRE) LIVE

As an adolescent, Hopkins was influenced by the synths of Depeche Mode and the Pet Shop Boys. He kick-started his career playing keyboard for Imogen Heap and has contributed to and produced albums by Brian Eno, Coldplay and David Holmes. As a solo artist, he tends towards subdued, ambient soundscapes, but the release of his fourth album, Immunity, with its pulsating rhythms, sees the producer eagerly connecting with the dance floor.

Voiski is a member of the young French label Construct Re-Form, and also belongs to the generation of avant-gardesque artists of the French techno scene. His immediately recognisable style mixes repetitive loops and cutting drums in an analogue build up that carries his music over sentimental futuristic layers. His talent has been recognised far beyond Paris, and in 2013 he signed an EP to the top New York label L.I.E.S.

2.30AM-5AM : LAURENT GARNIER (FCOM / LOURMARIN - FRANCE) DJ SET

Back in 2014, under the name Garnier, he released five EPs on five different labels (Still Music, 50Weapons, Music Large, MCDE and Hypercolour), marking a return to his most underground roots as well as his commitment to the new generation. In 2015, he released a vinyl box-set, the HOME box, bringing together all his releases, with exclusive remixes and even a new EP. 2015 is also set to be the year his first feature film is completed. 9.45PM-10.30PM : CLINIC (DOMINO RECORDS / LIVERPOOL-UNITED KINGDOM) LIVE

The four members of Clinic are unlike any other British band. As unclassifiable as Suicide or Monks, as enigmatic as the Residents, they bring about an atmosphere on stage that is cynical, sensual and bewitching. In their surgical gowns, they dissect poignant and powerful sounds. Icy synths, a mournful melodica, snarling fuzz guitars and an ironic and disconcerting voice on forceful rhythmic basis, certainly make for an explosive cocktail !

11PM-11.45PM : WAND (IN THE RED RECORDS / VICTORIA-CANADA) LIVE

Wand is Canadian Derek Janzen's experimental pop project. He has been composing and producing albums at home in Grande Prairie (a little village about 500km from Edmonton, Alberta) since 2008. His melodic, organic compositions are played lived with a drumkit, a trumpet and synths, for a unique, spectacular result.

12.15AM-1.15AM : THE SOFT MOON (CAPTURED TRACKS / OAKLAND - UNITED STATES) LIVE

The Soft Moon is the musical project of the dark and introspective Luis Vasquez. He creates music that blends post-punk, industrial, krautrock and darkwave with a certain class rarely seen among his contemporaries. There are grand vocals, twisted out-of-tune guitars, keyboards and cavernous binary rhythmic voltages. All of his albums have been released on Captured Tracks, a true icon of the new DIY scene (Beach Fossils, Mac DeMarco, Blouse, Wild Nothing etc.) His next release is highly anticipated for March 2015.

1.30AM-2.30AM : RONE (INFINÉ / PARIS-FRANCE) LIVE

First Olympia Hall in 2013, then Coachella the following year... In a few short years, Rone has earned himself a prominent place in the new French music scene. After having lived in Berlin, Rone returned home to France last year to set up his studio and record his third album, Creatures. His latest venture features the familiar voices of Etienne Daho and François from François & The Atlas Mountain. This eternal dreamer, engrossed in the fantastical world of childhood, complements his live performances with visuals designed by his girlfriend, Lilly Wood.

His first EP, Free, was released in September 2012. Just like his comrades on the same label (Matias Aguayo for example), he has a colourful, positive approach to club culture. Alexandre Berly, close friend of Yann Wagner, who he used to play keyboard for, now plays under the name La Mverte (pronounced like in Spanish "la muerte") and released his first EP Through The Circles in 2014 on the label Her Majesty's Ship.

11PM-12AM : LARRY GUS (DFA RECORDS / VÉRIA-GREECE) LIVE

Hiding behind the Anglo-Saxon stage name he's had since 2006, is actually a Greek citizen. Larry is a pro when it comes to collages and other musical cut-ups. He enjoys perverting pop, travelling through ages and continents to better shape his hypnotic elusive tracks. Larry Gus goes solo on stage, juggling his machines, guitar and the microphone, yet offers so much more than just a concert – it is a true sonic experience.

12.30AM/1.30AM : VAUDOU GAMEE (HOT CASA / LYON-FRANCE) LIVE

Before taking on the stage name Vaudou Gamee music played by Peter Solo and his musicians. 2AM-3AM : BATIDA (SOUNDWAY LISBON-PORTUGAL) LIVE

Led by the Portuguese Pedro Coquenao, Batida is a vibrant, modern live project that reinvents Angolan music from the 60s and 70s, with frenzied Kuduro rhythms enriched with traditional instruments and Semba samples. This explosive cocktail blending dance, video and rap is where Batida shines combining traditional sounds with electro.

3.30AM-5AM : SELVAGEM (UNIVERSAL CAVE / SÃO PAULO-BRÉSIL) DJ SET

CARTE BLANCHE TO SOUNDWALK COLLECTIVE

From 13 to 17 may, the Nuits sonores festival and European Lab forum give Carte blanche to Soundwalk.

Soundwalk is a collective of international art created by Stephan Crasneanski, located in Berlin and New York. Since 2000, it has built up a nomadic identity, embarking on trips without a specific goal through dilapidated districts of Bessarabia towards the Rub al Khali desert. By exploring and documenting the world around us through these sounds, the collective reinvents abstract narratives through fragments of reality to form unique “sonic” travels. You can tune into Soundwalk collective’s installations and performances all around the world.

PUBLIC CATERING

Just like the first gathering of Food Trucks at Nuits Sonores 2014, Arty Farty is keen to continue promoting this type of unique, friendly initiative. Directly imported from the United States, the food truck trend is proving to be a great new way of keeping urban festivalgoers happy with their tummies filled at Nuits Sonores.

This unique plan aims to create two food truck villages on the main festival sites (Le Sucre and Ancien Marché Gros). In total, there will be 8-9 outlets spread over the site of Ancien Marché Gros and 4 at La Sucre.

Each guest restaurateur is well-known in the local and national culinary scene. There'll be vegetarian options and pork-free dishes in each of the villages.

BONUS : THE POLISH CANTEEN

As part of the Warsaw Carte Blanche program, a Polish canteen will be set up on l'Esplanade Francois Mitterrand. Curious passers-by can enjoy traditional Polish dishes as well as sandwiches and sweets. The canteen will be open on the same dates and times as the Maison de la Confluence, from Thursday to Saturday 16 May 2015 inclusive, from 3:00pm to 21:00pm.

ARTY FARTY

Born in 1999 in Lyon, Arty Farty is a totally European and independent non-profit organisation. We aim to develop and promote independent culture in music and the visual arts, as well as all related disciplinary fields and modern aesthetics including graphic design, food and digital creation...

Here at Arty Farty, we pride ourselves on commitment and activism. We strive for a renewal of generations and public strategies in the cultural field, both locally and on a European scale. As such, we fight for the notion of cultural entrepreneurship, the protection and redistribution of public means for culture and a strengthened emphasis on the vision of culture in constructing tomorrow's cities.

In this regard, Arty Farty invents and produces events, the main ones being Nuits Sonores Lyon (since 2003), the European Lab forum (since 2011) and Nuits Sonores Tangier (since 2013). We also provide advice and artistic direction for other organisations and cultural venues, especially la Gaité Lyrique in Paris (since 2008) and Le Sucre in Lyon (since 2013). Over 15 years, we have developed projects in over thirty cities across the globe, mostly in Europe.

Arty Farty has broadened its horizons artistic management for a number of emerging artists, both French and international, and a few well-established artists, such as Laurent Garnier.

Arty Farty is now part of a larger ecosystem that began to develop in 2010. This includes Culture Next (Le Sucre's management company), A.K.A. (a booking agency created in partnership with Alias) and Transmission (Le Transbordeur's management company). In 2015, Arty Farty is also working on a music catalogue in digital publishing (with ABM) and the creation of a creative hub bringing the ecosystem closer to the organisation in a physical location, as well as an incubator for cultural enterprises and a space for co-working.

Arty Farty is 83% self-financed. Our public resources (17%) come from the European Union, the City of Lyon, the Rhône-Alpes Region and the Ministry of Culture. Today, we have 20 full-time employees and 900 members. Our assignments and projects are carried out in collaboration with fifty partners, sponsors and patrons, and over 100 cultural organisations (that are particularly involved in the Nuits Sonores festival and the European Lab forum) as well as some 500 suppliers and service providers.
